The teens of NFTY Str and Sar run Camp Jenny for children from low socio-economic backgrounds in Atlanta on Memorial Day Weekend at URJ Camp Coleman in Georgia. The campers are children who have worked hard at school and home to earn this opportunity. The cost of Camp Jenny for these campers is completely free. It is supported by funds raised by programs like this, run by Jewish teens all over the Southeast. The Rabbi's Discretionary Fund will match sponsorship donations up to $500! Not only will TBS come out on top against Beit Hayam, but thanks to your kind sponsorship, so will Camp Jenny.
